We invite you to prepare for this conference by reflecting on your discipleship of Jesus Christ.

In his most recent General Conference address, President Nelson extended multiple invitations to make “discipleship our highest priority.”

- “Brothers and sisters, now is the time for you and for me to prepare for the Second Coming of our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ. Now is the time for us to make our discipleship our highest priority.”
- “To whom or to what will I give my life?”
- “I urge you to devote time each week—for the rest of your life—to increase your understanding of the Atonement of Jesus Christ.”
- “It is neither too early nor too late for you to become a devout disciple of Jesus Christ.”
- “My dear brothers and sisters, in a coming day, Jesus Christ will return to the earth as the millennial Messiah. So today I call upon you to rededicate your lives to Jesus Christ. . . I call upon you to talk of Christ, testify of Christ, have faith in Christ, and rejoice in Christ!”
- “Come unto Christ and “offer your whole [soul]” to Him. This is the secret to a life of joy!”
- “The best is yet to come as we fully turn our hearts and our lives to Jesus Christ.”

Prayerfully consider President Nelson’s invitations and how you can enhance your discipleship of Christ. Write down your impressions. Share them. Come prepared for a discussion and examination of our discipleship together, through the messages and training that will be provided at this conference. Then act.

As the stake presidency, we extend our love to you and a personal invitation to attend the conference. Invite a friend to attend with you. We look forward to this opportunity to strengthen our faith in Christ together.

Sincerely,

President Paul Ritchie
 President Dave Johnson
 President Jasper Fauset
